FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Basic Regional Law Enforcement Academy Graduation

The Anderson County Sheriff's Department is proud to announce three members of the department recently graduated from the Blount County Sheriff's Office Basic Regional Law Enforcement Academy. Deputies Sharon Baird, Zach Bates, and Matt Landis completed an intensive eleven week course designed to prepare them for their law enforcement duties on patrol with the Anderson County Sheriff's Department.

Deputy Baird has been with the Sheriff's Department since 2004 and has served in corrections, transportation, and civil process. Deputy Bates has served as a reserve deputy and in court security since 2010. Deputy Landis has served as a reserve deputy since 2014. All three will be assigned to patrol in the coming weeks.

Congratulations to Deputies Baird, Bates, and Landis on completion of this important goal in their law enforcement careers.

Sheriff Paul White
