Working at the Detention Facility, Neva rose through the ranks from Corrections Officer to Captain and served as second-in-command of the jail. Her hard work and dedication earned the respect of her peers throughout the state.

Neva's husband Danny is also a veteran law enforcement officer with the Anderson County Sheriff's Department and their son, Danny, Jr, is a communications officer with the department.

The family will receive friends at Holley-Gamble Funeral Home, 621 South Charles G. Seivers Blvd. in Clinton, from 5:00pm until 8:00pm on Tuesday, March 9. The funeral will follow at 8:00pm.

Law enforcement officers and friends will meet at Holley-Gamble Funeral Home in Clinton at 2:00pm on Wednesday, March 10, for a memorial procession to the Bowie home.

The Bowies are avid motorcycle riders. The family asks for those who wish to please ride their bikes for the procession.

Please keep the family and friends in your thoughts and prayers.
