FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Arrest After Marijuana Found

Sheriff's deputies arrested Terry Allen Jones, 22, of Pine Ridge Road on Wednesday, September 1, after finding a large amount of marijuana at his home. Deputies had went to the residence in the Marlow community to serve outstanding warrants. Jones was there along with several other persons. Deputies saw some marijuana out in plain view and asked to search the residence. Jones gave consent and in the search some eight pounds of marijuana were found along with items indicating resale. In addition, almost forty firearms were found. Investigators have begun to check ownership of these weapons and some have been reported stolen.

Terry Allen Jones was charged with possession of marijuana for resale and possession of drug paraphernalia. The arrest warrants from the Oliver Springs Police Department for Vandalism and two charges of Reckless Endangerment were also served.
